

CONSTRUCTOR'S

LICENCE.

E 44381

WIRELESS TELEGRAPHY ACT, 1904.

Licence to establish a wireless receiving station.

Mr. Herbert Frederick Reynolds
(Name in full)
 of 1, Hamel House, Killybegs, Londonderry (Address in full) is hereby authorised (subject in all respects to the conditions set forth on the back hereof) to establish a wireless station for the purpose of receiving messages at above (address of Station)
address
 for a period ending on the last day of the month of Nov 1924
(date of expiration)

The payment of the fee of fifteen shillings is hereby acknowledged.

Dated 22 day of Dec 1923

Issued on behalf of the Postmaster-General

[Signature]
 for Postmaster.

Signature of Licensee

If it is desired to continue to maintain the station after the date of expiration a fresh Licence must be taken out within fourteen days. Heavy penalties are prescribed by the Wireless Telegraphy Act, 1904, on conviction of the offence of establishing a wireless station without the Postmaster-General's Licence.
 1881 G & S 104

CONDITIONS.

1. The Licensee shall not allow the Station to be used for any purpose other than that of receiving messages.
2. The Licensee will himself construct the receiving set used in pursuance of this Licence, and in its construction he shall not knowingly use parts manufactured elsewhere than in Great Britain or Northern Ireland.
3. The Station shall not be used in such a manner as to cause interference with the working of other Stations. In particular, reaction must not be used to such an extent as to energise any neighbouring aerial.
4. The combined height and length of the external aerial (where one is employed) shall not exceed 100 feet. An aerial which crosses above or is liable to fall upon or to be blown on to any overhead power wire (including electric lighting and tramway wires) must be guarded to the reasonable satisfaction of the owner of the power wire concerned.
5. The Licensee shall not allow any message to be divulged to any person (other than a duly authorised officer of His Majesty's Government or a competent legal tribunal) or make any use whatsoever of any message received by means of the Station other than time signals, musical performances and messages transmitted for general reception.
6. The Station shall be open to inspection at all reasonable times by duly authorised officers of the Post Office, who will produce their cards of identity on request.
7. This Licence may be cancelled by the Postmaster General at any time either by specific notice in writing sent by post to the Licensee at the address shown hereon, or by means of a general notice in the London Gazette addressed to all holders of wireless receiving Licences for broadcast messages, and will be cancelled on breach of any of the foregoing conditions. In the event of cancellation no part of the fee will be returned.

N.B.—Any change of address must be promptly communicated to the issuing Postmaster.
